CONSULTATION

The applicant, the owner, the local authority, the Historic Environment Record (HER) and War Memorials Trust were invited to comment on the factual details of the case as part of the consultation process. No responses were received.

DISCUSSION

War memorials attract considerable public interest and will warrant serious consideration for designating, especially during the centenary of the First World War. The Principles of Selection for Listing Buildings (March 2010) sets out how the Secretary of State determines whether a building or structure is of special interest and merits listing. The Historic England Listing Selection Guide for Commemorative Structures (April 2011) states that, unless compromised by alteration or of little design interest, there is a presumption in favour of listing all war memorials.

This is an elegant war memorial by noted sculptor FW Doyle-Jones, who was also responsible for a number of other memorials including some which are already listed. It commemorates those local service personnel who died during conflicts in the first half of the C20. It is acknowledged that the memorial has been moved a very short distance from its original location, but overall, it is considered that the memorial has special architectural and historical interest and meets the criteria for listing.

We have considered whether powers of exclusion under s.1 (5A) of the 1990 Act are appropriate, and consider that they are, which is made clear in the proposed List entry.

CONCLUSION

After examining all the records and other relevant information and having carefully considered the architectural and historic interest of this case, the criteria for listing are fulfilled. Gillingham War Memorial is therefore recommended for listing at Grade II.

REASONS FOR DESIGNATION DECISION

Gillingham War Memorial, which stands at the junction of Brompton Road and Mill Road, is recommended for listing at Grade II for the following principal reasons:
* Historic interest: as an eloquent witness to the tragic impact of world events on this local community, and the sacrifice it has made in the conflicts of the C20;
* Architectural interest: an elegant memorial by noted sculptor FW Doyle-Jones.

HE Recommendation

List at Grade II.
